

REFORMATION STUDIES COLLOQUIUM 2012

For more than twenty years, this biennial conference has been the UK's leading forum for studies of the history, theology and culture of the Reformation era in Europe, including the British Isles.

The Reformation Studies Colloquium 2012 will be held at St. Chad's College, Durham, from 4-6 September 2012. The plenary speakers will be:

EUAN CAMERON (Union Theological Seminary, New York)

PETER MARSHALL (University of Warwick)

MERRY WIESNER-HANKS (University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee)

CALL FOR PAPERS

We invite proposals for 20-minute communications on any theme related to Reformation studies. Please send proposals (c. 200 words) by email to alec.ryrie@durham.ac.uk by 31 May 2012.

BOOKING

Booking forms will be available soon at www.dur.ac.uk/imrs/newsandevents/refstudies/. We expect the full residential cost of the conference to be approximately £250, or £200 for postgraduates. We also hope to be able to offer some assistance to the travel costs of postgraduates presenting communications.

EUROPEAN REFORMATION RESEARCH GROUP www.errg.org.uk/index.html

As in 2010, the Colloquium will be held in conjunction with the annual meeting of the European Reformation Research Group, an informal conference with a particular emphasis on postgraduate and junior scholars. ERRG will meet at St. Chad's College on 3-4 September. A discount will be available for those attending both conferences.
